ER 1-2089

19 August 1950

Vice Admiral J. L. Hall, Jr., USN
Commandant
Armed Forces Staff College
Norfolk 11, Virginia

Dear Admiral:

As a sequel to my letter of 10 August, because of changed conditions it will be impossible for me to address the Class at the Armed Forces Staff College on 14 September. However, unless there are objections from you, I plan to send Mr. Shane MacCarthy, a very knowledgeable and excellent speaker who has been with CIA for about three years and knows the subject thoroughly. He will make the address in my place unless, as I said above, there are objections from the College.

He really is much better than I am and I think you will enjoy his lecture a lot. I have given Mr. MacCarthy the information for guest speakers and he will communicate with you directly about the time of his arrival.

With very best personal regards, believe me,

Sincerely,

/s/ + dictated 8/19
